FACT BOOK
2022

Foreword

The Office of Institutional Research is pleased to present the University of Pittsburgh Fact Book 2022. This annually produced book is intended to be a useful source of information about the University of Pittsburgh. The information provided on these pages reflects much of what Institutional Research reports on behalf of the University, throughout the year. The Fact Book includes the most current information available for either an academic or fiscal year, as well as historical information. Most of the information included in the Fact Book is compiled by Institutional Research from data sources developed by the office to respond to the planning, budgeting, and governmental compliance requirements of the University. If the source of the data presented is different from Institutional Research, the office providing this information is cited. In regards to these offices, Institutional Research is grateful for the assistance that they have provided.

We hope that you find the Fact Book useful and informative. We encourage your comments and suggestions on how to improve future editions.

University of Pittsburgh

MISSION STATEMENT

The University of Pittsburgh, founded in 1787, is one of the oldest institutions of higher education in the United States. As one of the nation's distinguished comprehensive universities, the resources of the University constitute an invaluable asset for the intellectual, economic, and social enrichment of Pennsylvania, while the international prestige of the University enhances the image of Pennsylvania throughout the world.

The University's mission is to:

- provide high-quality undergraduate programs in the arts and sciences and professional fields, with emphasis upon those of special benefit to the citizens of Pennsylvania;
- offer superior graduate programs in the arts and sciences and the professions that respond to the needs of Pennsylvania, as well as to the broader needs of the nation and the world;
- engage in research, artistic, and scholarly activities that advance learning through the extension of the frontiers of knowledge and creative endeavor;
- cooperate with industrial and governmental institutions to transfer knowledge in science, technology, and health care;
- offer continuing education programs adapted to the personal enrichment, professional upgrading, and career advancement interests and needs of adult Pennsylvanians; and
- make available to local communities and public agencies the expertise of the University in ways that are consistent with the primary teaching and research functions and contribute to social, intellectual, and economic development in the Commonwealth, the nation, and the world.

The trustees, faculty, staff, students, and administration of the University are dedicated to accomplishing this mission, to which they pledge their individual and collective efforts, determined that the University shall continue to be counted among the prominent institutions of higher education throughout the world.

GUIDE TO FACT BOOK DEFINITIONS

For the most part, universities share in the terminology used to describe enrollment, employment, and indeed, all other facets of a university's activities. However, there are nuances that are peculiar to each. The definitions that are presented here reflect the taxonomy used by the University of Pittsburgh, and as such are referenced here in the Fact Book.

Academic Rank
A categorization which includes: Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor, Instructor, Lecturer, and Other, with that last category used for faculty who are Librarians, Scholars, and Teachers.

Academic Year
This is the year that begins on September 1 and then ends on August 31. Comprising this twelve-month period is the Fall Term, which runs from late August to December; the Spring Term, which runs from January to April; and the Summer Term, which runs from May to August. Summer Sessions run concurrently with the Summer Term.

Campus
This is one of the five geographic locations of the University of Pittsburgh. In addition to the Pittsburgh Campus, the regional campuses of the University are located in: Johnstown, Greensburg, Titusville, and Bradford.

Certificate Category
Certificate programs are categorized respective to the academic level of the program. As such, they are referred to either as an Undergraduate Certificate or as a Graduate Certificate.

Certificate Program
An academic program whose completion is recognized by conferring upon the student an award referred to as a certificate.

College In High School
A program in which high school students are enrolled in classes at the University of Pittsburgh but receive instruction at their high school.

Cooperative Education Program
A program in which students from other colleges and universities may cross-register for classes at the University of Pittsburgh.

Degree Category
A degree classification which includes: Associate, Baccalaureate, Master's, Doctorate-Research/Scholarship, and Doctorate-Professional Practice.

Degree Program
An academic program whose completion is recognized by conferring upon the student an award referred to as a degree.

Degree Type
A specific degree within a degree category, for example: BA, MA, PhD, MD, and so on.

Fiscal Year
The year begins on July 1 and then ends on June 30.

Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) Enrollment
A calculated number derived by adding the number of full-time students to 40 percent of the number of part-time students.

Instructional Faculty

University faculty associated with teaching activities, as defined by the American Association of University Professors.

Level

Graduate Students

Those students enrolled in programs leading to a graduate degree or certificate. Also included are those students who are enrolled for graduate coursework but who are not seeking a graduate degree or certificate.

Graduate Students (continued)

Doctoral students are enrolled in programs that are classified as follows:

Doctorate-Professional Practice

These degree programs are the professional degree programs of the School of Medicine (MD), the School of Dental Medicine (DMD), the School of Pharmacy (PharmD), the School of Law (JD), the School of Nursing (DNP), the School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences (AUD, DPT, CSCD), and the School of Education (EdD – approved in June 2014).

Doctorate-Research/Scholarship

Degree programs in this classification are all doctoral degree programs other than those identified as Doctorate-Professional Practice.

Undergraduate Students

Those students enrolled in programs leading to an undergraduate degree or certificate. Also included are students enrolled for undergraduate coursework but who are not seeking an undergraduate degree or certificate.

Postdoctoral Associate

This is a transitional position and is viewed as preparatory for an academic and or research career. Individuals in this classification are considered employees of the University.

Postdoctoral Scholar
